

William R. Garth
Director of Finance, Indeck Energy Services, Inc.

Mr. Garth has 17 years experience in the energy industry. He currently oversees Indeck Energy's financial analysis, modeling, budgeting, and marketing efforts. Mr. Garth has a successful track record in all aspects of energy project development, including business development, project finance, acquisitions, contract restructuring, and asset management. Prior to joining Indeck, he was employed as a mechanical design engineer for the Superconducting Super Collider and as an industrial engineer for General Dynamics. He serves as a member of the board of directors of Cardinal Ethanol, LLC, Big River Resources, LLC and Little Sioux Corn Processors, LLC. Mr. Garth hold an MBA from the University of Dallas and a BSIE from Purdue University.